Dear Dick:

Clearances sufficient to give a blue visitor badge to [redacted] are requested so that he can participate in photo-interpreter response studies being performed for, and in, [redacted] As with other contractors participating in this work, [redacted] needs more than one [redacted] representative for active participation in this work. [redacted] primary activity will be the administration of photo-interpreter tests and the preparation of testing materials. This effort requires that [redacted] work in the building for periods ranging from days to weeks, and his ability to move freely in the building will facilitate our efforts.
